

SHEILAH A. LYNCH, MD

Lynch Plastic Surgery

With over 12 years experience in private practice devoted solely to cosmetic plastic surgery, Dr. Lynch offers expertise and credentials you can trust. She specializes in cosmetic surgery of the breast, body contouring and facial rejuvenation. After Plastic Surgery training at Brown University, a Fellowship in breast and cosmetic surgery at Georgetown University brought her back to Maryland. She enjoys living and practicing in the Washington Metro area where she finds patients to be savvy and image conscience. "My practice has a boutique feel and offers private duty nursing and transportation for a confidential and worry free recovery." Additional services include laser, injectable fillers and prescription skin care.
